

THE NETANYAHUS' SPECIAL GUESTS

Children from ALYN's rehabilitative hospital visit the Prime Minister's residence for a festive meal and warm hospitality.

Israeli Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu and his wife Sara on Sunday night hosted children from Jerusalem's ALYN Children's Hospital, a comprehensive rehabilitation center for physically challenged and disabled children, adolescents and young adults. During the festive dinner, the excited children and their parents spoke about their daily challenges and the lengthy process of rehabilitation which they are undergoing at ALYN. ALYN Director General Dr. Maurit Beeri said, "The children at our hospital were very excited to meet the Prime Minister and his wife in their home."

"We enjoyed warm hospitality and an amazing visit. The Netanyahus showed much interest in the children, their parents, and the rehabilitation process they are undergoing at our hospital."

